

Sources for preparing for the job search prepared by Cynthia J. Jameson, University of Illinois at Chicago

1. Academic Job Search

Finding Job Announcements - Berkeley Career Center

<http://career.berkeley.edu/PhDs/PhDJobs.stm>

2. UBC: Getting an Academic Job:

<https://www.grad.ubc.ca/current-students/graduate-pathways-success/getting-academic-job>

3. The Job Search Process - Berkeley Career Center

<http://career.berkeley.edu/PhDs/PhDAcademic.stm>

complete set: The Job Search Process

Nuts and Bolts:

Finding Job Announcements

The CV

The Cover Letter

Letters of Recommendation

Teaching Portfolio

Interviewing

Negotiating the Offer

Your Career Trajectory:

The Transition from Grad Student to Assistant Professor

In order to be adequately prepared, you should know what the hiring process is:

The Hiring Process from the Other Side

<http://career.berkeley.edu/PhDs/PhDhiring.stm>

4. U of Illinois Urbana-Champaign Career Services Office

<http://www.grad.illinois.edu/Careers/faculty>

also has a complete set:

Applying for Faculty Jobs

Landscape of Higher Education

Dual Career Search

Community Collegess

Curriculum Vitae

Cover Letteers

Interviewing

Negotiating an Offer